GOLF HOLIDAYS 2010-2011

TROON NORTH, PINNACLE & MONUMENT SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA

Located in north Scottsdale, Troon North Golf Club stands as the epitome of the desert golf experience. Both courses stretch through the natural canyons and foothills in the high Sonoran desert resting at the base of famous local landmark, Pinnacle Peak. The challenge, visual sensation, and special ambiance of Troon North sets the standards by which all other desert golf courses are measured. This facility is always immaculately groomed and customer service is exceptional.

New course renovations by Tom Weiskopf have created two new layouts with improved playability. Now, the Pinnacle course has much more natural routing and is one continuous loop. "Both courses can now be played exactly as the land dictates, the way Mother Nature intended." says Tom Weiskopf.

Both courses have 5 sets of tees and play over 7000 yards from the back, although with plenty of desert roll the holes do not play as long as the card might suggest. Indeed, with such great greens you will need to play a lofted club into many of them if you wish to hold the putting surface.

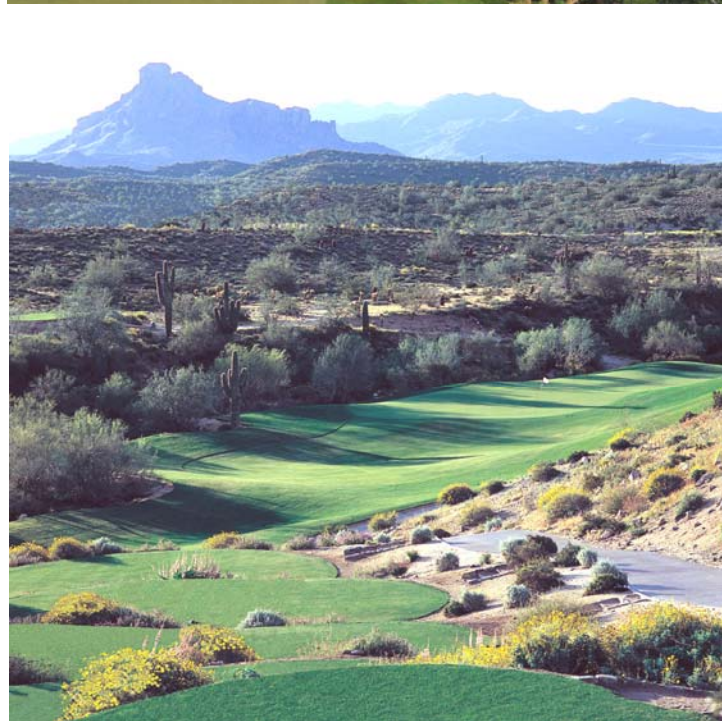

With the many accolades awarded to Troon North, this is not an inexpensive facility. But we like it a great deal and the redesign has made it even better.
